Rocky Victory in Oregon GOP Boosts Stock

By WALTER R. MEARS

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, turning the tables on Henry Cabot Lodge, boomed his Republican presidential stock today, after an upset triumph in Oregon's primary election.

The lone personal campaigner in a six-candidate field, Rockefeller left Lodge well behind in second place.

With the Oregon victory, Rockefeller's campaign for the GOP nomination got a shot in the arm which the governor hoped would thrust him toward triumph in California's crucial primary June 2.

Rockefeller is cast as the underdog there, too, in a head-on clash with Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater for 86 convention votes. They are the only two on the California ballot, with write-ins prohibited.

The Oregon triumph awarded Rockefeller 18 convention votes.

It was a write-in upset in the New Hampshire presidential primary that first propelled Lodge—absent and undeclared—into the battle for the Republican nomination.

Rockefeller's Oregon upset victory and appeared to have knocked him out of it.

Goldwater and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon ran far behind Rockefeller and Lodge in Oregon.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, who neither campaigned nor had Oregon allies at work, split a relative handful of primary votes.

With 2,437 of Oregon's 3,251 precincts counted, the Republican race stacked up this way: Rockefeller 59,482; Lodge 48,859; Goldwater 32,979; Nixon 30,530; Smith 5,167; & Scranton 2,844.

That gave Rockefeller 33 per cent of the vote and Lodge 27 per cent. These percentages stood from the very first sprinkling of votes Friday night.

Rockefeller, who spent a month stumping Oregon, heard the returns at his home in Tarrytown, N.Y., and said: "I have but one reaction tonight . . . and that is my feeling of deep gratitude to the people of that state for the victory they have given me."

With the Oregon upset, Rockefeller appeared to have shaken for the first time the shadow issue of his divorce and his remarriage a year ago to the divorced mother of four children. The second Mrs. Rockefeller expects a baby in about two weeks.

"I think the Oregon victory put the Rockefeller divorce matter more in its true focus," said Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, "and Oregonians showed they voted for the man and what he stands for rather than any labels he may have or his personal affairs."

Then Hatfield — who stayed neutral in the Oregon campaign — dispatched this telegram to the New York governor: "Your victory here is a great personal one and is the result of your vigorous presentation of yourself and the issues to the people of Oregon."

A Do-It-Yourself Census Taken

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The first do-it-yourself census in a large metropolitan U.S. area produced a response one official called "colossal" today.

The counting-by-mail project brought a flood of census forms into the Louisville Post Office Thursday.

By midnight, some 160,000 of the 240,000 forms mailed had been returned.

The census area covered Jefferson County (Louisville) and two counties across the Ohio River in Indiana, Clark and Floyd.

This was the first do-it-yourself venture into the big leagues of population. Earlier counts were held in smaller cities, John Baker, bureau information officer said, but first-day response was less than here.

Increased Aid to S. Viet Nam Says Johnson

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson confers today with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk on plans for increasing military and economic aid to South Viet Nam.

Johnson told congressional leaders at a White House meeting Friday that he would ask for more funds to support a heavier U.S. commitment to the Saigon government, stung by an upsurge in terror raids by pro-Communist guerrillas.

McNamara, who returned Thursday from another inspection trip to South Viet Nam, and Rusk briefed 17 Republican and Democratic leaders and the National Security Council.

Rusk had just returned from a North Atlantic Treaty Organization council meeting in The Hague where he asked the Allies to give more assistance to the anti-Communist effort in Viet Nam.

In general the congressional leaders declined to comment on what they had heard at the briefing but Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told newsmen: "There has been no significant change. It is purely a matter of degree. It isn't a very optimistic picture."

After the meeting White House press secretary George Reedy summed it up this way: "I think it is rather obvious there will be a need for additional funds and some appropriate recommendations."

He declined to say whether Johnson would present the proposals in a special message, a speech or a budget request.

After returning from Saigon, McNamara said that more U.S. military and economic aid must be sent to Viet Nam: This, he said, might require more U.S. troops to train Vietnamese forces.

No sooner was McNamara out of Viet Nam than the Communist Viet Cong won one of their bloodiest victories in a month in the jungle war. They trapped a convoy of government forces, killing 54 and wounding 50, including an American ranger captain. Ten others are missing.

Soprano Is Well Received in Atlanta

By DON MCKEE

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Leontyne Price, who began her career in a Mississippi church choir, brought her rich soprano to Atlanta and received in her world, an "overwhelming response."

Miss Price won prolonged applause during her performance in the Metropolitan Opera's production of "Don Giovanni."

After the final curtain call, exhausted but excited, the Negro singer was besieged by dozens of admirers backstage. She received Dr. and Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr. and several other Negroes in her dressing room.

"I'm so thrilled," she said. "It brought tears to my eyes." King, Southern integration leader, told the soprano: "You will never know what you did for Atlanta. I was so thrilled at the response. This was a genuine expression of appreciation—and about 95 per cent of the audience was white."

Miss Price told King and his group that she enjoyed her Atlanta debut tremendously.

"It is my first visit but I assure you not my last," she said.

Half an hour after the performance, more than 30 persons waited outside the theater for a glimpse of the soprano whose voice had captivated them.

The audience burst into thunderous and prolonged applause after Miss Price's first lengthy solo in the first act and repeated the acclaim after intermission when the soprano's rare quality obliterated everything else.

It seemed clear that the audience, composed mostly of Atlanta's white elite, agreed for the moment with Miss Price's credo that "singing is the only important thing in the world."

Large Crowd of Sportsmen Expected to Assemble for Bois d'Arc Dedication

By Mary Anita Laester
Star Feature Writer

The largest crowd of sportsmen ever to assemble in Southwest Arkansas is expected for the formal dedication of Bois d'Arc Lake Saturday, May 30, when a host of outstanding participants will be headed by Governor Orval E. Faubus who will be the principal speaker at the 3 p.m. program. William Apple, Vice-President of the National Wildlife Federation, and Raymond Farris, President of the State Wildlife Federation, will be on hand with a large group of Game and Fish Commission officials.

The dedication, to be held at the main lake site near Kidd's store and landing, will culminate work begun in 1956 on the Bois d'Arc Lake and Game Preservation. Since the organization of the Hempstead County Wildlife Association in 1958, it has worked with the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission continually for the completion of this lake, and it is sponsoring the dedication ceremonies.

The Wildlife Association is also sponsoring a fishing derby from May 1-30, which will end at noon on the day of dedication. A "Zebco" fishing reel will be given to the person catching the largest bass, crappie, and bream from Bois d'Arc Lake during that period of time. The big prize to be given away is a 12-foot "Razorback" fishing boat donated by the Razorback Boat Company of Malvern. Business houses in Hope will also give prizes to lucky persons at the dedication, and a fine program is being planned.

For many years the bottom land area of Bois d'Arc Creek located 9 miles south of Hope in the Spring Hill Township has been a favorite hunting and fishing spot for sportsmen in Southwest Arkansas. Realizing the possibilities for an improved fishing and hunting ground, the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission in 1955 approved the Bois d'Arc Lake and Game Preservation Program involving the building of a two and one-half mile dam just east of Bois d'Arc Creek. This would create a lake of 600 acres and an adjoining duck hunting area of 2,000 acres, which would be flooded from the main lake each fall for a duck feeding ground in winter. The remaining area of some 2,000 acres is stocked with wild turkey and a plentiful supply of deer and squirrel.

At the time the lake was completed last year it was stocked with a bountiful supply of fish—bass, crappie, bream, and catfish. Fishing in the lake will reach its peak in 1964. Duck hunting has been good the last two seasons. The fish lake is also a duck resting and feeding area, and no duck hunting is allowed in this area at any time. Large groups of ducks can be seen feeding here any time of year.

Bois d'Arc has five flood gates which can be used to hold a desired water level and to flood the duck hunting area. The water level is 254 feet elevation. The lake area covers the old lake known as the Goose Pond and Cedar Bayou, or Slough known as Red Chute. The total cost of the entire project was $250,000 but it didn't cost state or county taxpayers a nickel, for payment was made entirely by revenue from Arkansas Hunting and Fishing licenses paid to the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission.

Sportsmen from all over the area are expected Saturday, May 30 at Bois d'Arc Lake. Garland Kidd has a store and cafe at his boat landing for the convenience of the public. Will you be among the crowd attending the dedication? Wonder who'll win that "Razorback" boat and those "Zebco" fishing reels? It could be you.

Negroes Charged With Murder

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The death penalty was waived and five Negro youths pleaded innocent in circuit court here Thursday in the beating death of Richard Allen, 68, last March 16.

Judge William J. Kirby set bond for the boys at $5,000 each. Charged were Alvertis Barbee, 15; Albert Barbee, 14; Charles Edward Adkins, 15; James Adkins, 13; and Gilbert King, 15.

King was ordered to the State Hospital for a mental examination.

PICTURES SHOW GARLAND KID'S BOAT and fishermen's headquarters and a sign announcing one of the public prizes offered Saturday, May 30. Also shown are Orval Faubus and the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission will dedicate Bois d'Arc Lake & Hunting Area. Located west of Spring Hill.

THE ZEBCO REEL WILL GO TO THE SPORTSMAN catching the largest bass, crappie, or bream before Saturday, May 30. No. 1 prize for the person who catches a foot Razorback fishing boat donated by the manufacturer will be given away at a free drawing on Dedication Day. Handises prizes put up by Hope stores also will be offered the drawing at the lake.

Race Worker Jailed for Drunkenness

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Charles Edward Walker, 23, Hot Springs Negro whose arrest case the NAACP has asked the Justice Department to investigate, was fined in Municipal Court Thursday for drunkenness, escape from custody and assaulting an officer.

L. C. Bates of Little Rock, field secretary of the Arkansas branch of the NAACP, wrote to the Justice Department claiming Walker was brutally treated by Hot Springs police.

The Justice Department said it was investigating Bates' charge. It would make no other statement pending completion of its probe.

Judge Robert Rideway fined Walker $25 for escape, $15 on the drunk charge and $50 on the assault charge. Walker was released on $150 appeal bond.

Walker said he was drunk but denied that he fought or kicked policemen, as they testified. Bates quoted Walker as saying police beat him after breaking into his home. There was no testimony to that effect in court Thursday.

Prosecutor David Whittington said he issued a warrant for Walker's arrest after being told by officers that Walker was brought to the police station because he was drunk, and after being told to remain there, walked off without permission.

Police Chief John Erney denied that officers used undue force in arresting Walker. He said he voluntarily filed a report on the case with the FBI.

Influence of Truman Has Declined

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harry S. Truman's influence with the Democrats has declined while Dwight D. Eisenhower's weight with the Republicans has not been tested. That's one difference between them. There's another.

Eisenhower is reluctant to say anything that makes people mad at him; Truman thrives on the opposite. This was how the two ex-presidents acted in the White House and they carried the attitude into retirement.

This week Eisenhower, asked his choice among would-be Republican presidential candidates came up with this: "Oh, well, those are my personal thoughts. Don't let's get too deep into a fellow."

This will be the first presidential election since Eisenhower left the White House. He had tremendous influence with Republicans there. But he doesn't know how much influence he has now. He won't know until he tries to use it.

Truman didn't have any of this Eisenhower reluctance in saying what he thought in two presidential races after he stepped down.

In 1956 he endorsed Averell Harriman, then New York's governor, although he waited until two days before the convention. Truman was ignored and Harriman lost to Adlai E. Stevenson.

This didn't deter Truman. In 1960, months before the Democrats met to pick a candidate, Truman came out for a fellow-Missourian, Sen. Stuart Symington, and said another confederate, Sen. John F. Kennedy, would be weak.

Truman was ignored again, the second time in a row. But this didn't make him hesitant about speaking his mind, as he demonstrated last week when he reached 80.

He said of President Johnson, who will be this year's Democratic candidate, short of a political earthquake: "I don't think we have had a better President in 100 years than we have right now and I am tickled to death

Germany, has been charged with desertion and larceny, the U.S. Army announced today.

Svenson, a naturalized citizen of Lithuanian birth, drove across the border to East Germany on May 4, 1963, in an Army jeep. His use of the vehicle, which the East Germans returned, is the basis of the basis of the larceny charge.

The Army announced on May 7 that Soviet authorities had handed Svenson over. ADN, the East German news agency, said he had been expelled after "showing himself unworthy of the asylum offered him." It gave no details.

Svenson, 31 and unmarried, lives in Washington, D.C.

TOKYO (AP)—Japan agreed today to back Premier Khrushchev's call for a joint offensive to ban all nuclear weapon tests—provided the Soviets accept an adequate inspection system.

Japanese Premier Hayato Ikeda spelled out Japan's position to Soviet First Deputy Premier Anast I. Mikoyan, who brought Khrushchev's proposal when he arrived Thursday for a two-week visit.

Mikoyan did not comment on Japan's insistence on inspection safeguards, which is similar to the position of the Western powers with which the Soviet Union has refused to agree.

Headless British Men to Be Buried

By DENNIS NEEDL

ADEN (AP)—The remains of two British soldiers whose heads were hacked off by rebel tribesmen are being buried in Aden today with full military honors. The headless bodies of Capt. Robin Edwardes and Pvt. John Warburton were discovered in the Radfan Mountains 60 miles north of Aden by troops of the British-protected Federation of South Arabia. British army authorities announced Thursday night.

The shallow graves near the Yemen frontier were within a few hundred yards of where Edwardes' nine-man patrol ran into more than 100 rebels April 30. Edwardes and Warburton were killed as the patrol charged shoulder to shoulder and broke through a ring of tribesmen.

The rest of the patrol escaped. An intelligence report said the severed heads were buried just across the Yemen border in Qataba.

Four days later the British Middle East commander said the heads had been displayed on spikes in Taiz, one of Yemen's two capitals. The report shocked British public opinion.

Later U.S. officials at Taiz reported that the heads had not been displayed there. Leaders of Britain's opposition Labor party criticized the Conservative government for putting out an unverified report.

In London, Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Horne told the House of Commons Thursday night that the Middle East is ready to erupt into war. But he said his government had no intention of intervening in the struggle between Yemen's republican and royalist factions.

Douglas-Horne said Britain's only objective is to protect its military base at Aden and live up to its treaty obligations to the South Arabian federation, which is menaced by rebel tribesmen supported by the Yemeni republicans and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

Nasser has called on the Arab world to expel Britain from the Middle East.

with him."

This seemed to put Johnson right next to Abraham Lincoln. But, since Johnson looks like such a sure-shot for the nomination, this was one time when Truman was probably not sticking his neck out.

In the very early part of 1960, his last full year in the presidency, Eisenhower wouldn't endorse any Republican for his job even though Richard M. Nixon had been his vice president through two terms.

But by March of that year, when Nixon was the only real candidate in sight, Eisenhower announced in his favor. This meant a lot to Nixon. At that time, still in the presidency, Eisenhower had enormous influence with his party.

Maybe he still does. But that's not certain if only because of the mixed-up condition of the Republicans. His influence can't be tested at all unless he tries to assert it. He hasn't yet and perhaps he won't try.

He said Thursday he would not try to dictate a choice for the Republican nomination nor try to block any of the most prominently mentioned candidates.

He said: "I, by no means, believe that it is proper for me to say 'this is the man,' and expect all the Republicans, just like a herd of sheep, to run that way."

This was strange phrasing. Simply expressing an opinion or preference is not necessarily dictation. There is no reason why he should expect Republicans to run like sheep if he expressed himself on the candidates.

Asked why he declined to inject his influence into the pre-convention maneuvering, he said, "I don't want to do anything that I think would be divisive in the party."

"DEAR ABBY"

NEVER LET IT BE SAID

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: You burn me up. Why do you always take the man's side when wives complain that their retired husbands won't leave them alone? You are greatly in the dark about the habits of retired husbands and how exasperating they can be. Why do you always go to bat for the man? I hope your husband retires and objects to your pecking away at the typewriter; that you never have a minute you can call your own, and that he will be underfoot every step you take. The retired husband who does absolutely nothing can drive his wife crazy. That is my problem. My husband won't let me out of his sight. If I am gone for twenty minutes, he comes looking for me. I am a wreck from my husband's retirement. Men who retire should not bury themselves alive and expect their wives to inhabit the grave with them. Every woman needs a little aloneness. Why not give these lounge monarchs a little advice, too?

RETIRE MAN'S WIFE

Dear Wife: So frequently have I advised retired men to volunteer their services to a worthwhile charity, to interest themselves in church work, civic affairs, politics, gardening, sports, and to make a few friends of their own so they won't be under their wives' feet from sunup 'til sundown, that I fear I have begun to sound like a broken record.

WANTS A DIPLOMA

Dear Abby: I have always regretted not getting a college diploma. I started in the university, but I quit in my freshman year. I am now 33 years old, and I figured out that if I take courses three evenings a week it will take me eight years to get my diploma. And in eight years I will be 41 years old. Should I?

Wants Permanent Registration Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Odell Dorsey, one of the five Democratic candidates for governor, has signed petitions favoring a permanent voter registration system to replace the poll tax.

Dorsey, a North Little Rock businessman who lives at Sheridan, said he wasn't endorsing permanent registration. He said he just wanted voters to have an opportunity to decide the issue.

Wants Group to Rebuild Alliance

WASHINGTON (AP)—A group of Republican House members proposed today a commission to rebuild and strengthen the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, with two former presidents heading the U.S. contingent.

A House Republican task force on NATO unity wrote President Johnson suggesting he ask former Presidents Harry S. Truman and Dwight D. Eisenhower to head a "blue-ribbon delegation" to meet with similar groups from other NATO nations to work out ways of improving the NATO structure.

The GOP group, headed by Rep. Albert H. Quie of Minnesota, commended Johnson for "your efforts to unify North Atlantic Treaty Organization policy in regard to Cuba and South Viet Nam," but said the problems encountered "illustrate the dangerous disarray of this vital freemoral association and the urgency of revitalizing it."

Rural Arts Workshop Held
Approximately twenty-five ladies attended the Rural Arts and recreation Workshop in the McCaskill Community Center on May 7, in observance of Arkansas Home Demonstration Week. The following clubs were represented: McCaskill, Mars Hill, New Hope, Southeast and Blevins Clubs.
Eight wall hangers of felt stitchery were completed and three flower arrangements. Demonstrations were given on glazing old artificial flowers and making bath salt. Dinner was prepared and served by the McCaskill club members.

Atomic Cultivation
The U.S. Patent Office issued the first patent for an atomic-bred flower in 1956. A carnation exposed to atomic rays, changed from a white flower with red spots to pure white.

Railway to Close Two Stations

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Commerce Commission said Thursday that the St. Louis Southwestern Railway Co. (Cotton Belt) could remove a spur track and discontinue its station at Bull Neck, near Scott. The station has not produced revenue since 1960, and the only shipper using the spur track did not object to its removal, the railroad said.

Our Day of course it is, but it brings with it a staggering challenge... the individual responsibility of helping save civilization. The terrible "dark days" following the fall of the Roman Empire would be termed "good days" compared to the period of destruction that would follow the loosing of our hydrogen weapons. We must face it. In a manner we must be our own saviour. Then let us kids not quibble.

We must cheerfully accept the task. If we keep our eyes fixed on God and our ears tuned-in to His direction center, we can be the deterring force He needs to save the world from destruction. For He said, "Him that lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God." The varied programs of the church offer opportunity to gain this wisdom and understanding of God and His plan of salvation for the world. You have a part to play. Get inside His field of service... attend church regularly.
For, "The wise in heart will receive Commandments."

You In The Church

The Church Is You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs
the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.
